How this menu works for a real takeaway

Generated from product records, photos and prices instead of being hand-edited each time

Product controlled

Menu items, descriptions, prices, badges and images can come from a simple admin area.

Ready for QR campaigns

Flyers, window stickers and social posts can send people straight to the latest menu.

Demo order flow

The website builder can produce kitchen-style summaries for staff to call back and confirm.

Clear demo notice

This PDF is marked as a demonstration so visitors know it is not a real food order service.

Demo notice

Forge Fired Pizza is fictional. This PDF demonstrates what a generated menu could look like. No payment is taken, no kitchen receives this menu, and no pizza can be ordered from this demo.
